SHARED UNIVERSE SEQUENCE

The Shared Universe Sequence is an NLP pattern designed to exploit a flaw in the female psyche:

A woman's inner conflict between embracing her true self and seeking social acceptance.

Using NLP, you will construct a “shared” universe consisting of you and your target. Inside this imaginary universe, she is liberated from the societal norms that rule the real world. Here, she can freely explore new ideas, embrace her genuine desires, and express her individuality while still enjoying social acceptance... from you.

Inside Shogun Method, the Shared Universe Sequence belongs to the Rapport stage. (There are four stages through which a woman falls in love; Rapport is the second stage. For more on this, download the IRAE Model report.)

Shoguns (practitioners of Shogun Method) typically use the Shared Universe Sequence for—

1. Building deep rapport and escalating to the third stage in the IRAE Model (the Attract stage).
2. Isolating a woman from her family and friends. (Warning—this may cause severe dependency issues.)
3. Destroying boyfriends. (By creating a shared universe of you and her, you're excluding her boyfriend.)

You shouldn't use the Shared Universe Sequence under these circumstances—

1. When you can't see your target face-to-face. Given its length, the Shared Universe is not ideal over text.
2. You've only met her and you barely have any foundational rapport with her. In this case, focus on Intrigue (first stage of the IRAE Model).

3. She has emotional dependency issues. This will worsen her condition and create unintentional consequences. Also, the Shared Universe (or Shogun Method) could be overkill.

And, of course, if you are using the Shared Universe as a Boyfriend Destroyer, ensure these three conditions are met:

1. She is unhappy with her relationship.
2. Her boyfriend is not a close buddy of yours.
3. Her boyfriend is not a Shogun.

If the circumstances are suitable for you to execute this NLP routine, then proceed. You will deliver this routine in two steps—first, by eliciting her values, and second, by creating the Shared Universe.

Step #1: Elicit Her Values

Value Elicitation is Shogun Method's bread and butter, and we go deep into the concept inside the program. For now, here's a simplified version to use as part of this NLP routine. You will elicit her values by finding out two things about your target—

1. What she wants in a man (or, her romantic values.)
2. What objections she may have if she meets another man who shares her romantic values better than her boyfriend

As the opener, you can ask her casually about her hobbies and then switch to romantic values. For instance, if she says she enjoys horror flicks, ask her if she ever has a boyfriend who also enjoys the same genre. Then, switch to the usual romantic value elicitation—what she likes in a guy, and what she looks for in love.

Within Shogun Method, we analyze the needs and desires that are present in every woman's psyche. These three are the most common—

1. The need to nurture a man (or, the motherly instinct)

2. The need to exert her own individuality, following the “woman’s hunch”

3. The need to be cared for and protected from harm. This leads to the need for social inclusion and acceptance

As you will see, (2) and (3) above may conflict with one another. For example, when a woman is attracted to a man who is not her partner, she can’t sleep with him because that violates social norms. The fear of social exclusion stops her from acting on her true desires.

Hence, you can follow up the romantic value elicitation with something like–

“You know what, it’s natural to have romantic feelings for another guy. I mean, you’re only human, right? Just because you’re attached it doesn’t mean you stop being a woman...

...but, here’s the thing. You can’t date two men at the same time or people will start calling you names. And yet it’s entirely OK to have those feelings, and you don’t need to feel ashamed. You’re doing nothing wrong.”

This routine is laced with hypnotic NLP suggestions and yet she won't notice them. What you're doing is planting the idea in her mind that it's fine to break taboos and social constructs. She can be with you even if she has a boyfriend... you're a better deal and her female instincts are responding to that.

Step #2: Create the Shared Universe

Once you have elicited her values, create the Shared Universe. This is an imaginary world where societal norms don't apply... and she can follow her female instincts without getting judged. Her actions in this Universe is free from the expectations (and moral standards) of others.

Invite her into this imaginary world. Describe to her what both of you get to do away from the straight-laced, boring real world. Hug, create beautiful moments, share intimate secrets. Free from real world repercussions, imply that she is free to act on her desires with you. Nobody is going to judge her.

To do this, use this two-part NLP pattern—

“When I hold your hand, notice how good it feels to connect on a deep level.”

Pause for a few seconds. Then, continue.

“And you know what? sex is simply an extension of this connection. It’s pure, natural, and spontaneous. You don’t have to fight this feeling because we are in our own world now. Nobody is going to judge us, okay? It’s just you and me... and nobody else.”

Once you have delivered this routine, she will open up to you. And this creates an opening for you to escalate to something physical if you wish.

And if you do, use the third part in this Sequence to seal the deal. With this line, you will plant the idea in her mind, making it appear as if she’s the one who desires the sex. It’s sneaky, but it works.

What’s this third part?

Find it inside Module 5 of Shogun Method. It’s on page 44.
